USBC President
Hello members,

USBC’s monthly socials and restaurant tours are back and everyone is having a great time. Thank you Judy for June’s restaurant tour at Kraken. Remember: Our restaurant tours are held the last Monday of each month. Our socials are the third Saturday of each month at Los Amigos.

Our first fundraiser in over a year was on June 20th at IMAC Park. There was lots of food, drinks and entertainment. It was a lot of fun and a great success. This was a celebration for Fathers’ Day and Summer Solstice. A special thank you to Danielle, DeeDee, Maribelle and all the wonderful volunteers who helped make this event possible. And a huge thank you to IMAC for their great support.

General meetings with speakers will begin again in August. Mark this on your calendar. It will be on the first Saturday of every month. The first meeting this year will be on August 7th at 10:00am, at Rosarito Beach Hotel. Breakfast can be ordered from 9:30am to 10:30am. We would encourage all of you to get breakfast as it offsets the cost of using the hotel. Our first speaker will be announced soon. Submit your suggestions for speakers and topics to Danielle, our speaker chairperson.

Your board is working hard to get things happening again. Send us your suggestions and ideas for fun. Even better, run for a position on the board and get involved. Elections for all positions on the executive board and board of directors are up for election. Voting will start in November and if you are interested in running for any of these positions, please let me know.

It is a very fulfilling job to help others in our community and we are a great vehicle for meeting other ex-pats as well as educating ourselves on various topics and organizations.

It’s not too late to join us on our cruises in March 2022. We always have a great time on these cruises; thanks to Larry Norman, our cruise director. Check it out on our website.

Since 1983, USBC has been the original umbrella organization for all charity and non-profits. We are proud to be a valuable and important part of our Rosarito community.

Our monthly Communicator is sent out to each member. Each edition includes all the names of your board as well as their contact information. It is also available on our website at www.unitedsocietyofbaja.org. A very special thank you to our amazing web master and Communicator editor, Raymond Bell.

USBC will continue to follow all safety protocols for COVID for our events and we look forward to seeing you soon.

Please continue to be safe and aware. As always, Linda’s and my prayers are with you all.

God bless,
Wayne Denniston, President
USBC Community – This and That...

by Danielle Williams

Accompanied by Wayne Denniston, our president, I attended the 5th annual Rosarito Historical Congress at the Rosarito Beach Hotel on June 23rd. I was shocked to find out that USBC pre-dates the creation of the municipality of Rosarito by 15 years. The morning program was two-fold: announcing the classification of the Rosarito Beach Hotel as a historical monument (it was inaugurated in May 1925), and rendering homage to Hugo Torres, the lightning rod for the creation of Rosarito. In his acceptance speech, senor Torres described the process in some detail, stating it was a long, arduous process of demonstrations, plebiscites, and much work before Rosarito broke off from Tijuana and was finally granted a charter as a city whose official name is Playas de Rosarito in 1998. Old timers in Tijuana still refer to Rosarito as “Playas” causing total confusion with Playas de Tijuana which most people in Rosarito nowadays shorten to “Playas”. Kit Kaplan, one of our long-time members, remembers vividly the civil unrest of those days.

The confusion notwithstanding, the fact remains that Rosarito was born of strife in 1998, while in 1983 USBC was quietly born of the goodwill of a handful of expats wanting to do good for their host community. One is now a vibrant entity growing by leaps and bounds while the latter plods along basically unknown of Mexicans and expats alike.

Although I came to Rosarito in 2008 and was aware of its existence, it took me a long time to join USBC. My realtor had told me the organization was not worth my time. I joined at some point, years later, during Judy Wesphal’s tenure when I became aware of the myriad charity organizations USBC supported. While I have been a fan ever since, I deplore the lack of exposure USBC suffers. It is to alleviate the problem that I came up with the idea of a major public event: the Father’s Day and Summer Solstice Feast at IMAC this last Sunday. Thanks to massive advertising both in Spanish and English as well as media coverage, USBC did benefit from the exposure. By all accounts, the event was a success with a total of some 300 attendees, mostly Mexican, who enjoyed the varied program. It was an enjoyable feel-good sort of affair with a fair amount of networking with Mexican folks.

It is my sincere hope that USBC can continue to reach out and spread the good will generated on June 20th. There are many opportunities out there to make ourselves more visible.

For a long time, I have toyed with the idea of a historical project. It is worth researching whether some folks who arrived in Rosarito before 1983 are still around. Who were these USBC founders? I am more than mildly curious. Would it not be worth joining forces with the Rosarito Historical Society to document our mutual history? This new and different story could be told through different outlets: radio, TV, articles, exhibits, and performances. This would culminate in a bi-national reception honoring our interviewees.

This is just one idea. I am sure we can come up with more projects if we put our heads together.
