Hello members,

Wow! It’s already May. How time flies. Thanks to all of you who answered our survey on COVID. It is really helpful for us to plan our future events. We are really looking forward to have our first general meeting in over a year…in August. Watch for the announcements coming soon.

Meanwhile, USBC held our first restaurant tour on Monday, April 26th at El Encino Restaurant. It was a great success with great food, service and lots of conversations. Kudos to Danielle and Judy for their great job in putting this together. Thank you also to Carmelo and staff for putting together such a great meal for all of us. Linda and I had the combination plate of chile relleno, enchilada, rib eye steak with beans and guacamole, which was absolutely delicious. The other choice was salmon in garlic butter with baked potato with vegetables and beans. Mark your calendar for our next restaurant tour on May 24th and get your reservations in early.

Also, mark your calendar for our next monthly social on Saturday, May 15th. It will be held at Los Amigos from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Special prices for USBC members every month on the third Saturday. Takeout orders are also available. Join us for this fun event each month.

Your entire board has been vaccinated as well as many of you… so things are looking up with plans for the future. Mark your calendar for June 20th (Fathers’ Day and Solstice) for our USBC/IMAC event at the IMAC Park with lots of food, drinks and entertainment. Watch your Communicator for further details.

USBC is planning for future events including a cruise in March 2022. Watch for more info coming soon. It is with your support that USBC is able to make it through these tough times. Thank you all so very much.

Flying Sams is also starting up their monthly bingo games on the first Thursday of the month. The first bingo will be on May 6th at 12:00, at Los Amigos. It is great fun and lots of prizes… so welcome back!

Over the course of your life—through work, education, hobbies, and experiences—you’ve learned a thing or two. And chances are that other people would like to learn what you know or otherwise benefit from your skills, too. Whether you’re a math whiz, a trained musician, or a small business owner, you can give back by simply sharing your knowledge and talents. Consider volunteering to serve our community.

Please everyone, be safe by continuing to wear a mask, wash your hands frequently and maintain your social distance.

Please continue to be safe and aware. As always, Linda and my prayers are with you all.

God bless,
Wayne Denniston, President

Community Support – Flying Samaritans
By DeeDee Martinson RN
Membership and Communication Chair

THANK YOU from the Playas de Rosarito Chapter of the Flying Samaritans.

The Flying Samaritans is a non-profit organization which has conducted free medical clinics, for those who have no other resources in a number of areas in Baja California since 1961. The Playas de Rosarito Chapter was formed in 1994. Our Clinic is currently located in Rosarito Beach, about 20 miles south of the San Diego area. We are the only Flying Samaritan clinic whose volunteers don’t ‘fly in’ from the United States!

Our Flying Samaritans chapter has found a way to still meet the needs of many of our patients during the Covid Pandemic. Our last regular clinic was in March 2020. Along with everyone else we were closed by mid-month! But many of our patients, especially our diabetic and hypertension patients, are high risk patients. Their medications might literally be lifesaving!

In April 2020 several volunteers got together and devised a plan to help these patients. They pulled charts of patients who needed medication refills. A number of volunteers went to the clinic and filled these medications. The patients were called and told when to come to the clinic to pick up their medications. Patients were handed their bag of medications through the fence, with no actual physical contact! The first 3 times, we optimistically gave out medications for 2 months. In October 2020 we started to give them refills for 3 months. Our April 10th 2021 clinic was the 3rd clinic giving out refills for 3 months. The pictures are from this last clinic!

Medications, especially insulin, are our greatest monthly line-item expense. Therefore, our monthly expenses haven’t decreased by that much during COVID!

It is too early to tell if we’ll be able to have a regular clinic in July. Most of the volunteers will have been vaccinated. But almost all of our patients are also high risk, so it will also depend on the vaccination rate in Mexico, Covid rates etc.

FOR YEARS, until Covid ‘Upset the apple cart’, Flying Samaritan’s has received quarterly donations from USBC. You have been our most faithful donor!!

GRACIAS, THANK YOU SO MUCH!!
Community Support – IMAC and CEART
By Danielle Williams

Judging by the number of art galleries and craft shops up and down Benito Juarez you get the idea that Rosarito is an art Mecca. Yet most people do not go beyond this impression and leave, not realizing that this small city has far-reaching cultural roots in its two enormous institutions IMAC and CEART.

Created in 1996 for the filming of Titanic, IMAC – Instituto Municipal de Arte y Cultura – is located one block from the beach amid the charming Abelardo Rodriguez Park. To reach it from Benito Juarez, you would turn toward the ocean at Banamex. IMAC offers an enormous outdoor stage as well as a multi-purpose indoor venue for performances, art exhibits, and classes. On the way to the public Library attached to the back of the structure, you can stroll through a garden displaying statues and an ancient fountain, as well as featuring a chess park.

Its present director, Kethe Salceda, is a human dynamo whose enthusiasm for his work is contagious. He is busy seeking and implementing numerous classes and programs. Lately he created an additional cultural center in Primo Tapia. Notable among the many classes and activities he instituted are the "cumbia hour" for senior and younger citizens to come and dance on Sunday afternoons.

Classes such as yoga, gardening, and photography are about to resume. These are not language sensitive and would be suitable for ex-pat participants. The pair hold a farmers’ market every weekend.

When USBC was in search of a venue for its June 20’s Fathers’ Day event, Kethe immediately agreed to offer IMAC for the event. As of this writing, he has already helped put in place a large part of the entertainment as well as permits. Kethe invited the ex-pat public to participate in the USBC PHOTO MEMOIR COLLECTION, saying “we want to see the growth of our local scene through your eyes”. Photos can be sent to imac.rosarito@gmail.com to be digitalized.

CEART – Centro Estatal de las Artes y Cultura – just celebrated its fifth anniversary. It is the fifth of six state cultural centers in major cities of Baja California. Constructed to the tune of 126 million pesos, it is an imposing complex of architectural distinction. It can be seen from the toll road in South Rosarito. It is located on Paseo de la Cascada. To reach it, turn east from Benito Juarez and turn right one block. Consisting of several buildings, it offers two huge art galleries, a theater, an outdoor stage, several classrooms and workshops. Of note is the library created by Friends of the Library.

Larger and better funded than its municipal sister, CEART is more ambitious and serves as a multi-disciplinary center, housing four schools: visual arts, dance including ballet, music, and theater. It is home to a junior symphony. CEART has been host to art festivals, numerous concerts and dance presentations. Armando Gonzales de la Fuente, former director of IMAC and creator of a local TV station is the talented director.

Although activities have been severely curtailed during the pandemia, some classes worth checking into are about to resume. Be sure to check their schedule for performances when we get the green light.
Community Support – Protecting Your Online Identity

Facebook’s security practices changed for the better after its biggest data breach. If you haven’t heard already, hackers managed to steal 267 million user profiles. And, they did exactly what any other hacker would do - they sold the data on the Dark Web for other malicious actors to exploit.

To make the matters worse, this happened only a couple of days after the massive Zoom data breach which affected over half a million users. This just shows how vulnerable your online accounts can be, including Facebook. Even though Facebook has implemented a better cybersecurity infrastructure, that doesn't mean that your account is 100% safe.

Today, even newbie hackers can infiltrate your account. And if they have the means or the know-how, you can easily hack a Facebook account and expose someone's private messages.

But luckily, you can also prevent this from happening quite easily. In this article, we’ll go over some important tips that every digital user should implement.

Data has become more vulnerable than ever, with hundreds of hacking attempts happening every day. So, stay safe by following these tips below.

1. Use a Password Manager to Store and Create Passwords
2. Hide Your Email Address from Your Friend List
3. Enable multifactor authentication (have the site text you when logging in)
4. Log Out of Old Devices
5. Enable a VPN When Using Public Wi-Fi
6. Learn How to Recognize Phishing Links

Always take care, and heed good advice to protect your online identity.
