PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
Wayne Denniston
wrd414@aol.com

Hello members,

Eight months ago, we were returning from our honeymoon cruise and we returned to a different world with some sort of lockdown. We hope you all are doing well. While some things are opening again, please stay safe, wear a mask, keep social distance and wash your hands frequently. COVID is still alive and well and has changed our world. Normally, we would be in Puerto Vallarta for the Dios De Los Muertos celebration but will be missing it this year.

Thanks to Judy Westphal and DeeDee Martinson for putting together USBC’s Thanksgiving dinner. It will be different from past Thanksgiving dinners, but we can still safely gather together. It will be at Los Amigos for a reasonable cost. Please check out the USBC webpage for more information:

A very special thank you to Judy Westphal for her donation to our very brave firefighters on behalf of USBC.

It is with a very heavy heart that we have to say farewell to two of our very favorite people who have been great contributors to USBC and our Rosarito community. They have been a great asset to our community in the short time they have been with us and will be greatly missed. Ray and Robin Bell are off to a great new adventure. Robin stepped in as secretary when Linda was gone and did a fantastic job. Ray…well, I can’t say enough about the exemplary job he has done with our Communicator and our website. It is the best it has ever been. He made it possible for us to continue our board meetings safely online. Although we will miss both of you beyond words, we personally appreciate that you will continue to keep our Communicator going for USBC.

Both of you are the best and will always be a part of our community. Be safe on your new journey and know that you will always be in our hearts. You have been the best neighbors anyone could have ever wished for. USBC sends a very special thank you for all your help and support.

Your USBC board is working on a virtual general meeting until this COVID nightmare is over. Please stay tuned for further information.

As always, mine and Linda’s prayers are with all our USBC members and we are open to your ideas and suggestions. We miss you all.

Stay safe and be careful.

Community Support – Local Restaurants

Our world of social distancing will continue for some time, and with this stay-at-home enforcement, we still need to eat. Rosarito has wonderful restaurants with great food. A number of our local restaurants provide take-out and/or delivery. Please note that a number of these restaurants deliver, regardless of where you are located in Rosarito. Here are a few options as of October 30th.

Rosarito Community – Propane Distribution

As of October 24, the propane distribution program was in its 27th week. Each week, a different “colonia” is served with, at times, two visits in a row for the needier areas. The distribution of clothing continues to be an added feature thanks to the Red Cross Thrift Store, and for the past three weeks, Rosario Castillo, AKA Chayo and owner of MI JACALITO has provided “despensas” or food staples. These are more than the dry goods provided by the government as fresh vegetables and potatoes are included.

This continued effort has been made possible by donations. I am grateful to all the individuals who have contributed to helping many needy people – over 600 tanks donated thus far. The program has been an immensely rewarding experience for me, allowing me to discover the poorer side of Rosarito and its marginal neighborhoods.

Two outstanding individuals accompany me each week: Salvador Ochoa, a 91-year old man who runs a couple of non-profit organizations for the elderly, and Moises Ahumada, president of Ninos con Cancer. I have also met and conversed with the leaders of each neighborhood and discovered that our city is actually well organized, giving the people of the barrios a sense of belonging.

I had planned a fundraising event in November, but was persuaded to cancel since it is still too soon with respect to the pandemia. The price of food has increased dramatically since the pandemia began and so has the price of propane, making it even more difficult for people to make ends meet.

I hope to be able to continue the program well into 2021.

Sincerely,

Danielle Williams
