PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
Wayne Denniston
wrd414@aol.com

WOW!!! What a great October. We had terrific speakers from Serena (Marisa Molina and Gabriel Cruz). Thank you for the great presentation and the gifts, which included a one year membership won by Rhonda Wamboldt. We are looking forward to similar topics in the future with Gabriel.

The return of the monthly restaurant tour was a great success. Great job, Sandy! And thanks to all who attended. We filled Sokuna’s Restaurant to capacity and Steve and his staff prepared wonderful meals for us. November’s restaurant will be El Gaucho Argentino on November 7th. See page 6 for Sandy’s article on this gem.

Thanks to Kay for another great Halloween potluck, which attracted many ghouls, goblins and many creative costumes. The food was fantastic, including the unique cat litter dessert.

We are looking forward to celebrating our Thanksgiving potluck (on November 16th) with our legendary hostess, Maggi Wagner, who perpetually coordinates the best feast in town.

Don’t forget to turn back your clocks on November 3rd! It’s been a great month with lots of fun things in the works. Use our suggestion box for what activities or speakers you wish for the future. Don’t forget to vote for your new board.

“The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have it make some difference that you have lived and lived well.” - Ralph Waldo Emerson

Marisa spoke about their assisted living facility in Rosarito, which will be twelve years old in March 2020. This is one of three facilities. The Rosarito facility is currently full with a capacity of twenty and sixty percent of the staff and the full administration is housed here in this facility. The three year old Tijuana facility is mostly dedicated to Mexican families. They are looking forward to opening their third facility next year. Also in the works is an independent living facility in three or four years.

Serena offers care for post-operative patients, whether it be hours or days. They also specialize in care for age-related dementia or Parkinson's. They provide three meals and two snacks per day, striving to keep a family-like atmosphere. They can provide a van for cross-border transportation.

Gabriel spoke about Serena's full assistance card which can help in the event of emergencies and provides discounted services from various businesses.

Committee reports:
Sunshine report from Arlene updated John Hutzler's condition. Surgery amputating his leg was performed yesterday in Long Beach. Judy updated Jack Westphal's condition following cancer surgery. Get well cards were sent from USBC by Amy, our Sunshine committee chairperson. Membership report by Wayne for Milo indicates two new members for September, bringing membership to 186 members for September. Judy donated two wine festival tickets to our new October members, Ray and Robin Bell.
Sandy Eddhabi spoke about the resurgence of USBC restaurants tours the second week of each month. The first restaurant tour on October 10th is at Sokuna Restaurant with a three course dinner.

Kay Anderson spoke about the Halloween potluck, which will include games, music and prizes.

Maggi Wagner spoke about the Thanksgiving members' potluck for which USBC will provide and cook turkeys. A sign-up sheet for attendance and help was distributed.

Billy Ray Clark, nominating committee chair, spoke about USBC's thirty-six year history of service to the community. The bylaws and constitution state that USBC is a non-political, non-racial, non-sectarian, non-profit, cultural, charitable and social entity which strives to foster relationships for the benefit and for the service of its members and community. This year's November ballot will include: Sandy Eddhabi, Paul Flowers, Diego Knight, Alexander Magnum, Laura Orange, Arlene Sieman and Danielle Williams. Nominations were opened to the floor and closed with no further nominations. Voting will be in December and installation will be in January.

DeeDee, potluck and events chair, asked for potluck hosts for 2020 and distributed a sign-up sheet. She also described the wine country tour event scheduled for October 26th.

Non-profit reports:
FRAO will provide a guide and orientation for Mexican residency. Gabriela conducts a free Spanish class on Mondays and Fridays at 11 a.m. at City Hall.

Alexander expressed appreciation for Conrado and Rafael whose contributions have benefitted our community. Alexander expressed hope of future plans for restaurant ratings. Rafael stressed that information is power and we need to help each other.

DeeDee spoke about Flying Samaritan's October 20th Octoberfest at Las Rocos and the live auction for an African Safari. Amy Chankin reported for the Friends of the Library about their December 7th holiday home tour.

Barbara Acosta reported for Los Angelitos Orphanage, which provides a home for twenty children in the community. Dr. William Park raised $5000 for books, tuition and uniforms for their children by bicycling from Canada to Rosarito. Hearts of Baja is building a ranch out on Boulevard 2000 and will soon have room for a lot more kids.

New business: Wayne asked everyone to save the dates of March 9-13 in 2020, for the whale watching tour.

Old business: Wayne again requested an auditor for USBC by January.

USBC is still in need of a speaker chairman.

New member, Robin Bell, provided the joke of the day about blondes in Disneyland.

The 50/50 raffle was conducted by Mona. Dewey Roach won $47.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:55 a.m.

Respectfully submitted, Linda Gaetan, Secretary.

USBC RESTAURANT TOUR

By Sandy Eddahbi

El Gaucho Argentino

If you have not been to El Gaucho Argentino, then this is a wonderful opportunity to try it. I guarantee you will be going back for years to come, as I have. This is a true Rosarito success story. Flavia and Jerry came to town from the San Fernando Valley. They started their restaurant with just a small cart across the street from Johnny's Auto Repair. They worked very hard. They had success and when a very small inside space opened up next to Johnny's they took the plunge into a real restaurant. Their business grew and sometimes it was hard to get a table in this small space. Even with the sidewalk tables they quickly outgrew this space. About a year ago, they opened their large restaurant right on the boulevard and have continued their success with fresh food and great Argentinean flavor. I have been so excited for them with each of these steps. In addition to the restaurant, they have been busy raising their two daughters that are now beautiful teenagers. I love this story! So please come to the Restaurant Tour and taste a little bit of heaven.

Here is the Info:
Thursday, November 7 at 3:30
Restaurant El Gaucho Argentino
Blvd. Benito Juarez #100, Zona Centro, Rosarito.

Thanksgiving Announcement!

The USBC Thanksgiving Potluck will be on Saturday, November 16 at 1 pm at la Maroma. Members are free guest are $15 USD. Those wishing to attend need to sign up with Maggi, bajamagpie2@yahoo.com or call (619) 997-0824 by Thursday, November 14. Including the number in their party, so we know how many to prepare for. This is a “Family” holiday, so all food is prepared by our members. In order to ensure that there is dinner for all, you are asked to sign up to prepare a specific dish, salad, vegetable, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, cranberries, desserts. Anyone not signed up for a specific dish is asked to bring an hors d’oeuvre to serve 8. Turkeys, dressing, gravy, rolls & butter are already assigned. After everyone is serve, all are welcome to refills that they intend to eat. After the seconds, you may prepare some food to take home, but you are asked to then go to the checking table and give a donation for that food. If a member is unable to attend and you wish to take food for them, please inform the check in table first. If there is food leftover, the person who brought it is welcome to take it. All food left will be donated to CRREAD.
